OUR STEAMBOAT LANDING, Several Our SYRAMBOAT LANDING.—Several times recently we have referred to the condition of the lower part of our steamboat landing. As we have seen nor heard of any movement towards its repair, we shall again make a note of it. It is really distressing to notice how steadily and surely the damage in the way of washing out goes on. A large hole is washed in the unpayed part, and it is almost impossible for a yesterday William Gilligan and James steamboat to effect a decent landing at Newlove were arraigned on a charge of plain of this, and are loud in their de-nunciations of what they deem the short sighted policy of the authorities, in allowing this work of destruction to go on, when the outlay now of a comparatively small sum would save so much at some future day. Will not somebody move in this matter? Cernt benefit and prospective saving.

HIGH TIMES AT WELLSBURG .- We learn that since the election there have been some high times among our Wells-presiding, will meet in this city on the burg neighbors. On Friday evening last, the Union men, elated over their recent victory at the polls, indulged in journed over from September last. a large bonfire—to assist in which the cord-wood and store boxes of some of the citizens of the place were placed under forced contribution, the whole being topped off with an ambulance call and examine an article of Bath ately from South Carolina. On Satur- Soap, in pound bars, for sale by day some personal affairs came off, in Logan & Co., and Logan, List & Co. which, we understand, were engaged several of the leaders of both parties in perfumeries and toilet articles in great the place. The Union men are said to the place. The Union men are said to have been quite lively over their success. Our informant states that no such times have been seen in Wellsburg for sale by the case, can or half can, at since the war. The copporheads are noisy, preaching their decirines out occl-im noisy, preaching their doctrines out-spokenly on all occasions. As a natu-

ARRESTED.-Tom Young yesterday threw himself outside of a remarkably large lot of exceedingly mean whisky, which caused him to behave in a very ungentlemanly manner. The police arrested him, but Thomas wasn't willing to be incarcorated, and rendered himself very unwieldy. He would neither walk nor be carried—and was, generally speaking, as limp as a disl

"Unreturning Braves,"—Among a long list of names of Union soldiers buried on Belle Isle, at Richmond, Va. we take the following of West Virginia county, Pa., is also embraced in the list-M. Marsh, company E, Ringgold Ba-tallion, died Nov. 12, 1863.

AN UNSERMLY PILE,-Lond after load of the rubbish and filth of the neighborhood has been emptied over the bank near the B. & O. R. R. depot, north of the creek, until there has accumulated at that point a large pile of most obnox-ious truck. This should be at once removed, and we hope that if there is WEI HAVETJUST RECEIVED OUR any ordinance against the accumulation in this manner of such stuff, that it will be rigidly anforced. Their representations of the contraband are excellent, and their collection of several collections. collection of songs and conundrum good. They will give their last per-formance to-night with an entire change of programme. Go and hear them, by all means., "Uncle Tom's Cabin," in which act the inimitable Dougherty will appear, will be of itself well worth the price of admission.

AUTUMN.-The "foot-prints" of autumn are rapidly making themselves manifest. We see them in the chang-ing colors of the foliage; in the falling of the myriad leaves; in the fading and dying grass; in the flowerless herbs, and in many other respects. Each breath of wind sweeps away in its current thousands of golden tinted leaves, and the fall of nightly dows falls to refresh the drooping grass. A few frosts will strip nature of all its beauties.

DEATH OF AN AGED AND RESPECTED LADY.—Mrs. Sarah Duval, relict of Isaac Duval, and mother of the General, died at Wellsburg on Sunday, after a long illness. The deceased was one of the oldest residents of the town, and was well known and dearly beloved by a large circle of acquaintances, who will deeply regret her death.

THE LADIES' SOLDIERS' ATD SOCIETY. On Friday atternoon last this society held a meeting, at which it was deter-mined to close up the affairs of the intitution. A meeting will be held for this purpose on next Friday afternoon. It is proposed to divide the capital and stock on hands among the soldiers' families in the city most in need. If it were possible it would certainly be a good thing if the society could be kept up through the coming winter, as ther will be many persons in want of its charities.

The good ladies composing the Sol-diers' Aid Society of Wheeling certainly deserve great credit for the manner in which they have conducted the in-stitution, and we feel that they will long be held in grateful remembrance by many unfortunate persons in our
